ASI is very proud to present this excellent condition, 1966 Cessna 182J, G-ATLA. This aircraft is in immaculate condition, having been carefully looked after, and is a great example of a classic 182.

The aircraft had a new interior fitted last year, completed to a very high standard, featuring light tan colour seats and headliner. Propeller overhaul was completed 1 year ago, and since then has only approx 15 hours on it, and the engine had a top end overhaul 3 years ago, with very good compressions still.

The exterior is in excellent condition, having always been hangared and has been corrosion proofed, sporting a striking red and white paint scheme, with chrome nose cone.
